SOUTH CAROLINA BLACK HISTORY

VOORHEES COLLEGE CAMPUS

Voorhees College Historic District includes the older portion of the campus and buildings dating from 1905 to the mid-1930s. The district is significant for its role as a pioneer in higher education for African Americans in the area and for its association with Elizabeth Evelyn Wright.

Wright, a graduate of Tuskegee Institute, was determined to establish a school for poor African American children. Guided by her mentor Booker T. Washington, Wright founded Voorhees College in 1897 as Denmark Industrial School. It was modeled on her alma mater, Tuskegee Institute. In 1901, the campus moved to its current home, and in 1904 the name of the school was changed to Voorhees Industrial School in honor of its benefactors, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Voorhees of Clinton, New Jersey. In the twentieth century, the school expanded its mission to include the training of teachers and in the 1940s it became Voorhees School and Junior College. In the 1960s, it became Voorhees College. Remaining historic buildings and sites on the campus include Booker T. Washington Hall (1905), Bedford Hall (1912), Menafee Trades Building (1907), St. Phillip's Episcopal Chapel (1935), and the gravesite where Elizabeth Evelyn Wright was buried in 1906.
